

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

2016 Access to Justice Fund Call

The Law Foundation of Ontario invites applications from across Canada to the Access to Justice Fund (ATJF) for projects addressing legal needs of or relating to:

- Children and youth
- Consumers
- Public legal education, intake and referrals
- Racialized groups
- Refugees

Call for Applications

- This is a national call
- Applications are welcome from non-profit organizations from across Canada
- Collaborations among organizations with different areas of expertise and from different areas of the country are encouraged

Grant Amounts

Most grants will not exceed a total of $100,000. Any applications for amounts greater than $100,000 will need to demonstrate significant benefit.

Types of Projects Eligible

To be eligible to apply to the ATJF, your proposal must support access to justice and:

- Address legal needs of the groups or areas identified
- Fit within the Foundation's mandate, vision and mission
- Be from a not-for profit venture

Application Deadlines

There is a two-stage application process:

Stage 1 Letter of Intent
Download the application form from www.lawfoundation.on.ca
Deadline: April 1, 2016
Letters received after this date will not be accepted

Stage 2 Full Application
– By invitation only
